

Report of Operative R P Terrell. Re-Hungary Streets

Sept. 24th, 1926

Re: Rev. Paul F.B. Hanborsky

Operative went to 245 Somerset Street, the parish house of Rev. Alexander Szabo, pastor of the Hungarian Reformed Church of New Brunswick. It was 2 P.M. when Operative called and Rev. Szabo was not in. Operative waited for quite a while and shortly after the postman came to the house and left some mail on the porch. Operative asked the postman if he knew whether or not Rev. Szabo was in town or not. He replied that he is and probably is out on a call. Operative asked the postman if Rev. Sigmund Laký also lived at the Parish house and he replied that he had left and was now in Youngstown, Ohio.

Operative waited about an hour longer and as the Reverend did not return, decided to come back in the evening.

About 7 P.M. Operative returned to the home of Rev. Alexander Szabo, 245 Somer St. Was met at the door by a man who said he was the Rev. Szabo and on stating that Operative would like to talk with him for a few minutes was ushered into the living room and told to make myself comfortable.

Operative first asked Rev. Szabo where the Eastern Convocation of the Hungarian Reformed Church was located and he gave me the following address: 344 East 69th Street, New York City.

Operative then asked Rev. Szabo whether or not one Rev. A.G. Schodt was the Dean of the Eastern Convocation and he replied that Rev. Schodt had been the President of the Eastern Convocation (he used the word President instead of Dean), but that now a Geza Dakaro was President.

Rev. Szabo also stated that the Rev. Schodt was now officiating at a Hungarian Reformed Church in Philadelphia, Pa., the address of which he did not know.

In reference to Rev. Sigmund Laký, Rev. Szabo said that he had been pastor of this church from 1916 until June of the current

-continued-